(1) Business Analytics - Refers to methods that use statistics and computing technologies for exploring, cleaning and visualizing data to tract the hiden pattern of it and that will be used ~~en~~ to enhance business decision making. Example we are given raw data and clean to ~~ex~~ databick and visualize to excel (IBM)

(2) Data Analytics - Refer to the process of collecting, cleaning and examine raw data using specific tools to uncover patterns and actionable insights. Example data cleaning and processing that we do. (Coursera)

(3) Business Intelligence (BI) - are the ~~technological~~ technological tools used for collecting, managing and analyzing organizational data to yield insights that inform business strategies and operations. Example what we will use to process and visualize an data. (IBM)

(4) Data-Driven Decision making - It is the way that ensure and promote the usage of data and analysis to make decisions instead of making assumptions. Example make decision based on data findings not predictions or assumptions (IBM)

(5) Big Data - This is a type of data that is collected and it is underived it is just a raw data. Example data that is given to you to extract insights from. (Bethwa Nemutula)

(6) Descriptive Analytics - It a process of interpreting historical data to identify some changes. Example comparing two data of the same company but different period to check disparences (Investopedia)

(7) Diagnostic Analytics - It is the process of using data to determine the cause of trends and correlation between variables. Example using using insights to find ~~what~~ why spending changes when income changes (Havard Business School)

(8) PRedictive Analytics - predicts future outcomes using historical data. Example forecasting increase in sales in festive season because you know from past years.

(9) Prescriptive Analytics - Is a type of data analytics that seeks to understand what is to achieve the aim. (Investopedia)

(10) Data literacy - It is the ability to read, explore and understand data. Example being able to know what is required in the data (IBM)

(11) Structured Data - It is clear and organised data. (IBM)

(12) Unstructured Data - It is unclear and usually large typical of data that is generated by the business everyday. Example sales that are recorded everyday. (IBM)

(13) Data warehouse - Data warehouse it is a storage for data. Example - workspace. (Oracle)

(14) Data mining - The process of analyzing massive datasets using statistical analysis.

(15) Data visualization - The Representation of information and data using visuals. (To me)

(16) Dashboard - Is a way of displaying various types of visual in one place. (IBM

(17) Metric - It is a calculated value that determine performance for business activity.

(18) Key Performance Indicator (KPI) - are quantifiable measure used to determine and track if there is progression towards specific business objectives, Example evaluating ratios to check profitability (Investopedia).

(19) Benchmark - It is a point or reference or measurement used to compare the quality and performance (AirFocus)

(20) Segmentation - It is a strategy ~~to~~ of dividing a large market in to smaller groups. Example dividing customers base by province or products (Indeed)

(21) Conversion Rate - It is a percentage of users who take a specific desired action such as buying a product. Example entering competition on spins (Adjust)

(22) Customer Acquisition cost (CAC) - are costs incured by the enterprise trying to convince the customer about the product. Example enterprise introducing the new product and showing how it is helpful doing promoment and designs. (Corporate Finance Institute.

(23) Customer Lifetime value (CLV/LTV) – It is a revenue that a business expect from each single loyal customer. Example people who smoke cigarette the business expect a specific profit through out entire relationship (Oracle Net Suite)

(24) Churn Rate – The percentage of customers or subscribers who stop using a company's product or service over specific period. (Investpedia)

(25) Customer Retention Rate – measures the percentage ~~pe~~ of customer existing in a company. (

(26) Net promoter score (NPS) – It measures how likely customers are to recommend a company product. Example a customer after ~~buys~~ buying a certain product ~~who~~ how often refer others. (Atlassian)

(27) Average order value (AOV) – measures the average amount spent per transaction it is calculated by dividing total revenue by the number of orders. (BSM)

(28) Sales Funnel – It is a visual presentation of the customer journey, mapping ~~the~~ the path from initial brand awareness to the final purchase (Tech Target)

(29) Marketing Champaign – It is a method ~~as~~ used by business to promote a specific product or service

(30) Post - Campaign Analysis - It is the evaluation of marketing campaign's performance (Camp house).

(31) Incremental Revenue - It is the additional income generated from specific ~~activity~~ activity such as marketing campaign. (IBM)

(32) Return on Investment - It evaluate how company is efficiency and profitability of investment related to its costs in percentage terms. Example ~~to~~ how much it cost to produce and what is the profit for it. (Xero)

(33) Return on Ad spend (ROAS) - A marketing metric measuring revenue generated for every Rent spent on marketing. (Adjust)

(34) Click - Through Rate (CTR) - A digital marketing metric measure the percentage (%) of people who click on link. (Xero)

(35) Bounce Rate - The total percentage of visitors who land on a website and leave after viewing only one page.

(36) A/B Testing - It is a controlled experiment comparing two versions of a digital asset to determine which performs better.

(37) Lead Generation - It is the process of identifying and attracting potential customers to guide them into to a company's sales pipeline.

(38) Marketing Attribution - Determine which marketing touchpoint such as social media ads or emails.